

Change Is Coming

Anna Graceman

The winds of change are blowin' past
And they cut me, like shards of glass
My life is gonna be turned upside down
And I'm losing my way, way too fast

You rub me the wrong way
Like wearing a sandpaper coat
It's all a lie, I'm saying good-bye
And the tears, they well up, in my throat

Ch change is coming
Ch change is coming, coming yeah
I see it coming down the track
Ch change is coming
Ch change is coming, coming yeah
Even though I'm moving forward
I keep on looking back

I'll fall to pieces if this is a mistake
'Cause it's staring me, right in the face
If I let go, oh yes I know
I'll disappear without a trace

Ch change is coming
Ch change is coming, coming yeah
I see it coming down the track
Ch change is coming
Ch change is coming, coming yeah
Even though I'm moving forward
I keep on looking back

The other side of change ain't so bad
If you get past all the pain
And right now I'm fighting with myself
From going against the grain
And even though it's strange

Ch change is coming
Ch change is coming, coming yeah
I see it coming down the track
Ch change is coming
Ch change is coming, coming yeah
Even though I'm moving forward
I keep on looking back
