

Showtime

Anna Graceman

Pick up my telephone
Then I hear the dial tone
Punch in your number
And then it starts to ring
Then I hear your voice
On the other line
Took a deep breath
Showtime

Dollar sign
Pumpkin pie
Please hand me some of those fries
Too short, too tall
Too fat, too small
Girls are mean
Make me me scream
Then I read my magazine
Just a teen cover scene
She thinks she's a royal queen

I know that you know how
I feel right now
It's not easy
Hey believe me

I know that you know how
I feel right now
Someday I will lose
All this doubt
Somehow

Barbie doll
Shoppin' mall
Man she's just a know it all
Too short, too tall
Too fat, too small
Makes me mad, makes me sad
Wanna cry but that's too bad
Twilight zone
All along
Scream into my microphone!

I know that you know how
I feel right now
It's not easy, hey believe me
I know that you know how
I feel right now
Someday I will lose
All this doubt
Somehow

Mirror mirror with disgrace
Make me wanna hide my face
Make me wanna disappear
Tell me what I wanna hear

Now that it's so loud and clear

Runnin' far away
But I know that I'll get there someday
'Cause I'm just another girl
Tryin' to find my place

Hey I know how you
Feel right now
It's not easy
You'll believe me
Yeah yeah yeah!
Hey I know how you
Feel right now
Someday you will lose
All this doubt

Sooner or later
You'll lose all this doubt
Some how!
Yeah
