

So Complicated

Anna Graceman

Crystal chandelier hanging over my head
The sweet echo sound of a mansions dread

I don't know weather to go back or to stay

What do I do?

No turning back should I run away
Everyone think I'm insane

Going back would be wrong anyway

What do I do?

Why is it so complicated
You and I ain't outdated
Colors faded

Leave me standing here irritated
Now were far apart separated

com-pli-cated

Why is it so complicated ?

I'm so ashamed right now
My head is pointing down

Hear the voices inside my head right now
they're arguin' they're arguin'

Now I'm standing in an empty room
Wondering what to do

Hear the echo of my cry
Should I say good-bye,good-bye?

Why is it so complicated
You and I ain't outdated
Colors faded
Leave me standing here irritated
Now were far apart separated

com-pli-cated

Why is it so complicated ?

I'm at a fork in the road
Somebody point which way to go
What I choose today makes my forever

What do I do?

Why is it so complicated
You and I ain't outdated
Colors faded

Crystal chandelier hanging over my head
The sweet echo sound of a mansions dread

I don't know whether to go back or to stay

I'm so ashamed right now
My head is pointing down

Hear the voices inside my head right now
They're arguin' they're arguin'

Why is it so complicated
You and I ain't outdated
Colors faded

Leave me standing here irritated
Now were far apart separated

Com-pli-cated

Why is it so complicated ?
Complicated

What do I do?
