

The Only One

Anna Graceman

Paint me a sky of yellow and blue
Let's fly high in a hot air balloon
I get you and you understand me
You make me laugh when we disagree
We'll be together as the years fly by
'Cause you carry my secrets and you open my eyes

You're the only one
The only one who truly understands what I'm going through, you
You're the only one who helps me know what to do
The only one

Best friends like us, we're attached at the heart
If we live close or if we live far apart
Let's make a promise, no let's make a dare
We'll do a secret handshake and then pinkie swear
Nothing's ever gonna come between us two
I guess you're stuck with me, it's true

You're the only one
The only one who truly understands what I'm going through, you
You're the only one who helps me know what to do
The only one

It's been so long since I've seen your face
I wonder if you feel the same way
Your voice it echos in my mind
And I remember all those good times
When we were little girls

You're the only one
The only one who truly understands what I'm going through, you
You're the only one who helps me know what to do
The only one
