

Until you sleep

Anna Maria Jopek

Now goodnight and sleep tight, it's time
Soon a new morning will dance in your eyes
Just let the candle and moonlight all wish you a good night
With a kiss, sleep

Hush, hush, hush

My shadows are dancing for you
All your dark creatures are gathering too
And as you call them around you, they won't make a sound
'Til you sleep, sleep

Hush, hush, hush

Everytime that half of the world fall asleep
Some are left counting, some slaying their sheep
And that's how it must go, but I know this hole will be safe
While you sleep, sleep

Hush, hush, hush

Hush, hush, hush
Hush, hush, hush
Hush, hush, hush
