

Car Crash

Anna Nalick

I think I love you like a car crash, dear I don't want your wreckage ball to find I cannot steer, My eyes away now, you know I couldn't stay now Let me go, let me go,
angels raise accusing eyes, I'm gonna lose him,
let me go, let me go.

cause I might let you break my heart.
If mine was all that I was worth I might let you break my heart, if I don't break it first.

The old star clock it laughs itself to sleep tonight, and that fork in the road will bleed me like a knife.
but you're moving faster, beautiful disaster let me go, just let me go angel raise accusing eyes, I'm gonna lose him, let me go, just let me go.

and maybe I will taste you in another time and place, you look so good, I bet you taste like something sweet. but Hell is overflowing and there's no way of knowing if I give up Heaven for one moment will I get it back?

I think I love you like a car crash, one more move and there's no looking back I won't pull away, my forever by the wayside
let me go, let me go
angels raise accusing eyes, I'm gonna lose him
let me go, just let me go

And I might let you break my heart, if only mine would hurt.
