

Scars

Anna Nalick

Scars cover you in fine lines, number you a timeline, where was I when you stopped trying

You borrowing my tears an harrowing my mirror, covering our eyes so I can't see us crying.

I'm not going home without you
I'll save your life
Not going home without you
I'll make this right,
and wait all night if that's what it takes.

I can't believe this skin is one we've always been with for as long as we recall it for everything that it's been through Know that I forgive you Know that I will hold you when the sky is falling

I'm not going home without you
I'll save your life
Not going home without you
I'll make this right
and wait all night if that's what it takes.

And my reflection shows we're clinging to dear life but I won't let us go we'll make it through all right. (2x)

Scars cover you in fine lines
number you a timelines maybe it is time that we lived by my guidelines
I'm not going home without you
I'll save your life
No, not going home without you.
I'll make this right
and wait all night if that's what it takes.

Save your life,
if that's what it takes,
wait all night if that's what it takes.
