

Sort Of Delilah

Anna Nalick

You were at an end, breaking at the bend
Heaven was an awful lot to lose
What if I'd have prayed, if I would've stayed
If I would've thought about you

I just covered your eyes
And let you crumble down, down, down on the inside
All this trouble is mine
I let you crumble down, down, down on the inside

I can't lie, love
I'm sort of Delilah
And I know that I let you down
I let you down, oh, I let you down

Once you were a tower, and given the power
How did I become the wrecking ball?
Didn't want to hurt you, didn't deserve you
I'm usually the victim, after all

I just covered your eyes
And let you crumble down, down, down on the inside
All this trouble is mine
I let you crumble down, down, down on the inside

I can't lie, love
I'm sort of Delilah
And I know that I let you down
I let you down, I let you down

And I might not have started
If I knew that I would break your heart
And if I tell you I'm sorry
Would I build you back to where you started
And I became the bad guy when I broke your heart
And you just let me
I don't want to be the bad guy

I just covered your eyes
And let you crumble down, down, down on the inside
All this trouble is mine
I let you crumble down, down, down on the inside

I can't lie, love
I'm sort of Delilah
And I know that I let you down
I let you down, I let you down

I let you down, I let you down, I let you down
Ooh, let you down, I let you down, I let you down
I let you down, I let you down, I let you down
