

Black Widow (Naked Version)

Anna Ternheim

I let her go
Gone, gone, gone the black widow
I let her go
Gone gone gone in her dying meadow

I just open up my window
No need to argue
If she's going

I let her go
Gone, gone, gone into deep slumber
Gone, gone like ice melts in the summer

I just open up my window
No need to argue
Lay my head against a pillow
No need to follow
If she's going
