

Lovekeeper (Naked Version)

Anna Ternheim

Lovekeeper please let me out
Lovekeeper please let me out
I haven't been for so long
You keep your eyes on me.

Love of mine don't lend a hand
Yours are just keeping me down
I've been down for so long
Your love likes to hold on

I hear a time bomb ticking when you come too near violent explosions, no one but I can hear

Lovekeeper you cut me off
Words as defence aren't enough
I've been quiet for too long,
you keep your eyes on me
Lovekeeper please set me free

I hear a time bomb ticking when you come too near
Violent explosions no one but I can hear
