

Blood On Blood

Anna Tsuchiya

Incomplete night
Unpleasant light
thousands of children are crying
Come inside
And close your eyes thousands of fires burn inside you
Sell your soul sweet insanity

Cruelty
Slavery
thousands of murderers are breathing
Turn away
And run away
Haven't you surfed enough now?
Sell your soul sweet insanity

The dissolute word
That I don't want to know is falling inside me
To be freed from all of this
I want to quicken my end right now

Blood on blood
It's time to say goodnight
Release your life
And stare into the darkness inside me

Broken down
Hurt again
You're frightened and trembling
Look inside
My sacrifice
Despair has fallen over me
Sell your love, sweet insanity

The dissolute word
That I don't want to know is falling inside me
To be freed from all of this
I want to quicken my end right now

Blood by blood
It's time to say good-bye
Release your life for me
Or you will shiver, till you deliver

Now you want me
Now you want it all?
My blood is cold as ice
Let me out and let me die

The dissolute word
That I don't want to know is falling Inside me

Blood on blood
It's time to say goodnight
Release your life

Blood by blood
Or you will shiver, till you delive
