

Give me kiss & kiss

Anna Tsuchiya

It's been a while
Since you've been and gone and never come back
I'd never forget that day it was so sunny out
And everyone was at home
You kissed me like you used to, nothing different

Grateful moments
But from that day I've lost my way

Baby, where are you?
What do you do?
Do you still think about us over times?
You don't send any letters
I'm waiting so long time
Please come home soon
Baby, I've forgotten the way you speak
I've forgotten the way you seek
Can I hold to my hope
That you'll someday come back again and
Give me kiss and kiss

Don't worry, cuz nobody hates you
Nobody's mad at you
Just be home soon
I know that you're happy already
Having the ones you love around
You're living the days where smiles never fade

I try to understand but still
My heart under shade

Baby, where are you?
What do you do?
Do you still think about us over times?
You don't send any letters
I'm waiting so long time
Please come home soon
Baby, I've forgotten the way you speak
I've forgotten the way you seek
Can I hold to my hope that you'll Someday come back again and
Give me kiss

Future fear and chaos
Is always in my thought
No matter how much I think
The answer run away

Nobody knows what the truth
You can only try to believe

Baby, where are you?
What do you do?
Do you still think about us over times?
You don't send any letters
I'm waiting so long time
Please come home soon

Baby, I've forgotten the way you speak
I've forgotten the way you seek
Can I hold to my hope
That you'll someday come back again and
Give me kiss and kiss

Baby, what is the truth?
Where is the love?
Fighting in the family and one you love
But everyone wants to be happy
Everyone wants to have a smile on their face
At time and time
We fought again
So do I
I've fought all my life and I still will be the one I love and myself
Baby, come home
Please, please, kiss
