

Jane

Anna Tsuchiya

Kimi wa itsumo, yume wo kataru
You seem so far away when you do
Kimi wo mamoru, ude no naka de
You talk about a different place
You don't have to belong
You don't have to be proud
Cause I think you've got everything that you need
Kimi wa doko e iku no?
Don't go so fast.

Jane, don't you rush and listen to me now
Jane, take a breath, let me say

I want you girl
The way you are
I really mean it
So be yourself
No matter what the others say
I'm always on your side

I love you girl
For what you are
I really mean it
Don't change yourself
No matter what the others say
I'll never let you down

'Ikiru koto wa, amaku wa nai'
You always try to show your strength
Sabishii yoru, boku no soba de
Baby I can watch you cry
You don't have to pretend
You don't have to smile
Kimi no te no nukumori ga
Baby, baby, I want to make you happy.

Jane, don't you rush and listen to me now
Jane, take a breath, let me say

I want you girl
The way you are
I really mean it
So be yourself
No matter what the others say
I'm always on your side

I love you girl
For what you are
I really mean it
Don't change yourself
No matter what the others say
I'll never let you down

Jane, sono mama no
Jane, kimi de ite
Jane, nani hitotsu
Jane, kowarazu ni

I want you girl
The way you are
I really mean it
I love you girl

I love you girl
I'll never let you down

I want you girl
The way you are
I really mean it
So be yourself
