

Goodbye

Anna Waronker

So you say I'm free
I guess you must have forgotten to tell me
At least in a way that didn't scare

I hear I'm liberated
I guess that means I'll be dating much more
You could have shown me the door
I'd like to even the score

I will show you how to say goodbye
Well, I will show you how to say goodbye

You take years off me
Back me in to corners I didn't want to be in
And you said, "Okay, we'll just see,
We take you very seriously"
And then you put it all on me

I will show you how to say goodbye
Well, I will show you how to say goodbye
I will show you how to say goodbye
Well, I will show you how to say goodbye
Goodbye
