

Trigger

Anne-Marie

I don't even wanna open this door
No, I don't wanna step inside
All of our history is scattered on the floor
Blurring all the enemy lines
We're too far from the start to remember
Why there's even a fight
I don't wanna even talk anymore
I don't wanna get left behind

Getting nowhere, tired of fighting
Put the gun down, do the right thing
That won't fix it any quicker
We don't have to pull the trigger
Come along, just show some mercy
Do you really wanna hurt me?
That won't fix it any quicker
We don't have to pull the trigger

That won't fix it any quicker
We don't have to pull the trigger
That won't fix it any quicker
We don't have to pull the trigger

Why can't we talk about it
Why don't we try
I think we can change our minds
If we could just look into each other's eyes
Instead of letting bullets fly
Maybe we could just meet in the middle
Do we have to take sides?
Settle down and we don't have to go to war
Why don't we just take our time?

Getting nowhere, tired of fighting
Put the gun down, do the right thing
That won't fix it any quicker
We don't have to pull the trigger
Come along, just show some mercy
Do you really wanna hurt me?
That won't fix it any quicker
We don't have to pull the trigger

That won't fix it any quicker
We don't have to pull the trigger
That won't fix it any quicker
We don't have to pull the trigger

I don't know, I don't know where we're started
I don't know, I don't know where we're going
All I know is it won't make a difference

That won't fix it any quicker
We don't have to pull the trigger
That won't fix it any quicker
We don't have to pull the trigger
That won't fix it any quicker
We don't have to pull the trigger
