

Feel Alive

Anneke van Giersbergen

I feel your heart, it beats against
The side of my face
I'm holding on the memory
Of our embrace

I see your smile and I'll never want it to fade again

You find your way through hideaways
In the back of your mind
Let's hope I find the energy
I'll never deny

I feel alive, you saved my heart
I lost control
I feel alive, you saved my mind
I wanted you to know

I'm holding on the fairytale
Of our embrace

I feel alive, you saved my heart
I lost control
I feel alive, you saved my mind
I wanted you to know
I feel alive, you saved my heart
I wanted you to know
