Take Me Home

Anneke van Giersbergen

God I feel, I think I should be all that I can be Dude I like, I hope we can get together someday

Since the stars in the sky and the clouds aligned I have realized you should

Let me lead the way, oh oh Let me lead the way, oh oh Take me home

Fingers crossed my obsession with you is tameable Best thing for me is to be in your grip before night falls

Since the stars in the sky and the clouds aligned I have realized you should

So alone Give me some kind of understanding All alone Give me even the slightest sedation

Take me home Take me home Take me home
