

Introlise - If I Were Made Of Music

Annie Haslam

If I were made of music
This is what I'd be
I'd be a symphony for life
You'd never finish me
Opening each day with a new song
A note would never be wrong

It's a perfect scale
You've reached for all the time
Has become my meaning
Since you became mine
Held by your chord
Now I have found
My freedom through your voice
Realising no bounds
Write me with your fingers
Caress me with your sound
Life inside your rhythm
Has made my love a round
Closer to the harmony that lies within
Waiting for the season

'Cause it's a perfect scale
You've reached for all the time
It's become my meaning
Since you became mine
