I like to feast on thoughts of anger I like to prey on evil minds And I like to rip the very fabric That keeps them all intertwined I'm full of lies, just hold me as you die I wrench this vice, my human sacrifice You beg and I feed, your blood is all I need Rapture, ecstasy, it's time to bleed for me I love the dark and screaming madness No one can see through my disquise The sewer rats are just a snack But I'm here to crush your petty lives I'm full of lies, just hold me as you die I wrench this vice, my human sacrifice You beg and I feed, your blood is all I need Rapture, ecstasy, it's time to bleed for me I am a never ending nightmare And I dream of swallowing the sun My eyes burn to embrace you Nowhere to hide, nowhere to run I'm full of lies, just hold me as you die I wrench this vice, my human sacrifice You beg and I feed, your blood is all I need Rapture, ecstasy, it's time to bleed for me
