

So precious and new
I see the innocent little eyes
I see the eyes
I'll always be there for you
I'll always be there to hear your cries
The way you've changed my life
From the very first day you were born
You give me the answer to what it's all for
I worry for you
I worry for you as I look into the future
As I look in the future
All the things that you've shown me
It's almost as if you were a messenger
The way you've changed my life
From the very first day you were born
You give me the answer to what it's all for
Wanna hold you, so come in my arms
Wanna feel you and keep you from harm
I knew, I knew from the start
That you could steal my
Wanna hold you, so come in my arms
Wanna feel you and keep you from harm
I knew, I knew from the start
That you could steal my heart
Wanna hold you, so come in my arms
Wanna feel you and keep you from harm
I knew, I knew from the start
That you could steal my
Wanna hold you, so come in my arms
Wanna feel you and keep you from harm
I knew, I knew from the start
That you could steal my
Come in my arms
Keep you from harm
