

It's You

Annihilator

I'm all alone
Nothing to help me through the night
I wait by the phone
Hoping that every thing's alright, alright

No one can tell you
Is it wrong or is it right
But how am I supposed to know
There's got to be an answer
To ease my soul
Is it you, is it you?

I need your promise
A promise that I never needed anyone before
(Never needed anyone before)
Co don't try to push me away
'Cos I just keep coming back for more
(Coming back for more)

No one can tell you
If it's wrong or if it's right
But how am I supposed to know
There's got to be an answer
To ease my soul
Is it you, is it you?

I want you, I need you
From the bottom of my heart
Just tell me, I just got to know

Can you see me, please believe me
I loved you from the start
Please tell me, I just got to know
Got to know

No one can tell you
If its wrong or if it's right
But how am I supposed to know
There's got to be an answer
To ease my soul
You're the only one who knows
Only one who knows

The answer to the question is deep inside
And it's you, it's you
It's you, it's you
God only knows it's you
