

The Beast Within

Another Animal

You are empty on the inside
Break you open and show
Everyone you're nothing
All broken on the inside

Full of hate and misery
In places where a soul should be
Dead and rotten on the inside
Narcissistic tendencies make you
The only one you need

Hollow on the inside
Drowning in your sin and greed
There's nothing left for you to bleed

Rise above spread my
Wings and fly again
Every time I try it seems
I get pulled back and
Then I'll fly again

You have spoken for the last time
Lost your place to stand with me
Tunnel vision's all you see
Forever banished to the outside
No more time for listening
To bullshit lie conspiracies

Rise above spread my
Wings and fly again
Every time I try it seems
I get pulled back and
Then I'll fly again
