

Castles in the Air

Anouk

The man goes to find out what he is
The madness of the soul in a tore of bleeds
The place he used to live is now a cave
It's where I met my shadow in the darker shades

What happened to the days that were on fire?
My soul is way too dark for my own desire!
Happiness is gone, my thoughts unclear
No one ever wins these kinds of fights
It's hard for me to focus on what's near in life

All I wanted was you to love me,
I just needed you to care,
Hope that you would treat me right,
And I needed you to be there,
But I was building castles in the air!

Tryina see what we were meant to be,
This is a lost cause, is all I see,
Uh, we can never grow back walls are broken
Oh, we're to hope your heart's not open
Anywhere I would've followed you,
In time I wish you could see
And realize what you've lost
When you chose her over me

All I wanted was you to love me,
I just needed you to care,
Hope that you would treat me right,
And I needed you to be there,
But I was building castles in the air!

All of me, take all of me
It's all I have left to give
Yeah, all I wanted was you to love
I just needed you to care
Hope that you would treat me right,
And I needed you to be there,
I was building castles in the air!
I was building castles in the air!
