

Faith in My Moon

Anouk

Another day is here another drama will appear
And I think it's time that I gave my mind a break
I'm feeling used and abused and misunderstood
I gotta find me a place
Where there's no one else around
Every time I see you walking away
My head's spinning around
No I never feel the same

I didn't know what I had baby 'til it was gone
No nothing even matters even matters at all to me
No more

I ain't done much lately
Sleeping and staring at the wall
Watchin' TV
And even though I'm down still

I have faith in my moon

Well I said hey get rid of it

Photographs of you here in my room
Reminding my heart and soul that I still love you
Whenever I'm with you it's wearing me out
No matter what you do you're the one I love
Now baby where did we go
Did we give it a chance
'Cause everything is about to go down tonight
And as I said before
I didn't know what I had baby 'till it was gone
No nothing even matters even matters at all to me
No more

And while you're out there in search of you
And try to keep it all together
Where were you when I needed you

I have faith in my moon

Well I said hey get rid of it
