

Graduated Fool

Anouk

Graduated fool, that is what I am
For every time I failed you
You're so beautiful, I just turned and walked away

I jingle with words, tangle my tongue
Stammering stutters
So I wrote you this song, to finally tell you
What you've known all along, I love you
Believe in me, believe me

It was true devotion, now these mixed emotions
Oh, I did it again
I want you to forgive me, when the pain has faded
We'll be laughing again
Believe in me

Graduated fool, I'm better than I am
For that is what you made me
Please, hold back your tears
I didn't deserve you anyway
Believe in me, I still care for you, believe me
Just believe in me, believe me

When I kiss your face again, all these mixed emotions
Of pleasure and pain
I want you to forgive me, when the pain has faded
We'll be laughing again

Believe in me, you're so beautiful, believe me
Just believe in me, believe me
