

I Don't Know Nothing

Anouk

Just because I may act like I know everything you like
It doesn't mean my hands don't shake
Got burning eyes, inside I die

Look around the tone of grace I'm living in the last days
I couldn't tell the rights from wrongs
It's all the same, I lift away

Dreams are still, the truth is
That I don't know nothing
And I don't know why

All the answers I don't have
Make me feel so worthless
God knows what lies ahead

So unreal as I rely on lies instead of what I feel Overwhelmed by modern days
Is there a right place in this life?

I couldn't tell
In fact I... don't know nothing
No, I don't know why

All the answers I don't have
Make me feel so worthless
God knows what lies ahead
