

If You Were Mine

Anouk

I lay my weapon down wont fight no more.
Try to get you by my side.
Though I have been in love before,
They could never take my clouds away.

Babe if you were mine,
I won't hasitate at all,
You just let me know,
I'll be the one to catch your fall.
Anything you need,
Dont give me away,
You make me so confused,
The one I love, loves someone else.

Dont stop the music it feels good,
It keeps my mind of me missing you,
Keep the rain away,
There is nothing for me here,
Without you by my side.

Cuz babe if you were mine,
I won't hasitate at all,
You just let me know,
I'll be the one to catch your fall.
Anything you need,
Don't give me away,
You make me so confused,
The one I love, loves someone else.

Baby what's it gonna be?
Is it gonna be her or me?
Tell me what I have to do?
Cause I know that im good for you.

Babe if you were mine,
I won't hasitate at all,
You just let me know,
I'll be the one to catch your fall.
Anything you need,
Dont give me away,
You make me so confused,
The one I love, loves someone else.

Babe if you were mine
If you were mine
Babe if you were mine
Babe if you were mine

Babe if you were mine

If you were mine..
