

Last Goodbye

Anouk

Beneath the burning sky, I hold you gently
When we watch the sun go down, it's heavenly
As you begin to cry, I say I love you
Then we will meet again some day
I know it's true!

As birds fly by, stars are lining up tonight
Your hand in mine, when we say our last goodbye,
Fire in the sky.

Makes me feel so full of peace to feel you with me,
'Cause we have nothing more to fear, nothing to hope
I see you take your one last breath,
I want you to know that you are free to leave my love
Now let it go!

As birds fly by, stars are lining up tonight
Your hand in mine, when we say our last goodbye,
Fire in the sky

Eh eeh eeeh fire in the sky
Aaah aaah
Eh eeh eeeh fire in the sky
Aaah aaah
Fire in the sky
Fire, fire in the sky.
