My Best Wasn't Good Enough

Let's say I'm feeling better Let's say I'm feeling fine Let's say I gave you all I had And now I'm out of time And my best wasn't good enough

And now this time to wonder Now this time to heal Time to let it all come down But I don't know what I feel

But it aches and it hurts and it burns Oh it kills me

Tick, tock, you don't stop You don't fade You just stay But I'll do it all again

Now you don't call me baby Just don't pretend you care Save your sorry for yourself When Judas takes you there

Once I really believed There was nothing out there for the lost and lonely But a voice in my head kept banging on my heart Says you're not the only one

But it kills me

Tick, tock, you don't stop You don't fade You just stay But I'll do it all again

Tick, tock, you don't stop You don't fade You just stay But I'll do it all again
