

Help You Stand

Anthem Lights

Picked up the phone again
Put it right back down
That was such a lame attempt
To try to help you out
If I said to myself I'm not scared I'd be lying
Don't know if I know what to say
But I'm trying
So I'm picking up the phone again

I hear you fell down
I'm here to let you know
Not giving up
Not gonna let you go
I'm not judging
I'm just loving
Not pointing my finger
When I'm reaching out my hand
I just want to help you stand
Oh oh oh oh
Just want to help you stand
Oh oh oh oh

The tone that's in your voice
I can recognize
The shaking from your choice
I can empathize
If I said I had never been there I'd be lying
Jesus picked me up when I was crying
Broken down on the ground
That's why I'm calling you now

I hear you fell down
I'm here to let you know
Not giving up
Not gonna let you go
I'm not judging
I'm just loving
Not pointing my finger
When I'm reaching out my hand
I just want to help you stand
Oh oh oh oh
Just want to help you stand
Oh oh oh oh

He'll meet you where you are
He loves you where you are
He's not pointing a finger
He's just reaching out his hand
Oh oh oh oh

He'll meet you where you are
He just wants to help you stand

I hear you fell down

I'm here to let you know
I'm not judging
I'm just loving
[x3]

When I'm reaching out my hand
