Anthem Lights

Somewhere between where I started and right now
You caught my eye
Now all I can see
Is the distance that remains between You and I

In a land of settling
I can't seem to settle in

I am a stranger in this world, just passing through
Waiting on the Son to come down
Waiting on the Son to come down
I know that I will be on my way real soon
Waiting on the Son to come down
I won't be home 'til I'm with You
I won't be home 'til I'm with You, with You, with You

I don't belong
I speak the language but still I can't understand
What's going on
So I'm running to You just as fast as I can

Don't wanna settle in
This place is not my home

I am a stranger in this world, just passing through
Waiting on the Son to come down
Waiting on the Son to come down
I know that I will be on my way real soon
Waiting on the Son to come down
I won't be home 'til I'm with You

Gonna keep my eyes
Looking to the sky for You
The Son is on His way
And I wanna be ready
And I won't forget
I'm not home 'til I'm with You
The Son is on His way

I am a stranger in this world, just passing through
Waiting on the Son to come down
Waiting on the Son to come down
I know that I will be on my way real soon
Waiting on the Son to come down
I won't be home 'til I'm with You
[x2]

I am a stranger
I won't be home 'til I'm with You
I am a stranger
I won't be home 'til I'm with You

I am a stranger, a stranger
