

A Bridge Too Far

Anthemora

Staying blockade in a trench
A Purulent wound on earth's surface
Greedy dogs
Pointing the objective to assault
That's all your aim!
Hidden enemies waiting for you
Awaiting the wound to purge

That bridge is life or go on to die

We're gonna fight - Forever fight
Look through the hell evil angels to die

Get that bridge now!
Keep fighting - Kill
Kill evil angels or die!

Night - In darkness attack
Heavy stenches flatter around
The wound drips matter as you crawl out
Fire - Fire - Now!
From the height of the bridge
Thunders and lightning
And slaughter begins!

That bridge is life or go on to die

We're gonna fight - Forever fight
Look through the hell evil angels to die

Get that bridge now!
Keep fighting - Kill
Kill evil angels or die!
