

Her Eyes

Anthénora

Night, mist and cold
Buried in this trench alone
The wild - Savage steel
Of the machine-gun I feel
They're coming - I wait:
Dead men walking on fate
The scythe waiting for them in my hands

Then flares light up the fight
Thousands reflections on waves in the night
Remind me the tears in her eyes
At home, on the threshold, saying good-bye

And I see her eyes
Her tears to fall, stealing my life
Her eyes: the truth inside
But I'm here wasting my life
I see her eyes
Her tears to fall: the truth inside
Instead of lies that lead me here
Tell me why!!!

Bursts, screams and smoke
A chaos of fire and blood
Where are the triumph and freedom?
I see destruction!
I fight so that everything ends
I kill to save myself
Don't care for victory or not
I just want to be back home

And I see her eyes
Her tears to fall, stealing my life
Her eyes: the truth inside
But I'm here wasting my life
I see her eyes
Her tears to fall: the truth inside
Instead of lies that lead me here
Tell me why!!!
