

The Sniper

Anthenora

Crawling in the night
Through the smoke of fight
Climbing home to home
On the bloody walls
I'm just lost!
Through the barbed wires
Of the enemy's lines
I'm looking for a light
In a lost paradise

I follow the smell of human flesh
My prey is near and I will lead him to hell

'Cause I am
I am the sniper: as a phantom I fade
I am the sniper: as a lightning fast I will come and strike!
I am the sniper and I'll take your soul
I am the sniper and you'll have no choice at all

In a savage hell
Where black demons dance
Now I see a light
Near the enemy's trench:
Someone's there!
My life is a duel
With no way to escape
A duel with death at side
But who's going to die?!

I follow the smell of human flesh
My prey is near and I will lead him to hell

'Cause I am
I am the sniper: as a phantom I fade
I am the sniper: as a lightning fast I will come and strike!
I am the sniper and I'll take your soul
I am the sniper and you'll have no choice at all
