

The War of the Rats

Anthénora

Far away from home
In a land of white horizons
Far away from fatherland
Thunder and lightning devasteteng your mind

Try to escape from this - the smoking debris
Try to escape from this - this armageddon

Reach the demons in your mind
Kill the demons you'll find
A rat trapped with no hope
The disaster you never thought

Mother motherland is crying aloud
She's loosing her children
She's asking for you

Fighting to survive: life's a battlefield
While your idols are falling down
No - never surrender
And fight till you die

Looking for a reason
A reason to survive
Sniffing as killer cats
Enemies walking around

Mother motherland is crying aloud
She's loosing her children
She's asking for you

Fighting to survive: life's a battlefield
While your idols are falling down
No - never surrender
And fight till you die
