

My All

Anthony Callea

Every day I wonder why
Why you stepped into my life instead
I love that we don't have to try
I know that our love won't die
No way

Who would have know
Wish I was told
That love could feel this way
You took my life into your hands
Gave my heart a second chance
Again

Never thought my mind would
Ever understand
The true meaning of together
It never ends

I wanna give my all to you
You've given me new life
I'm giving all myself to you
Please, take all that's mine

Your eyes tell me
So much of you
I know my heart can't lie
No words I speak
Will ever be
The feeling that's inside
My all
My all

You make me feel so beautiful
And anytime I fall, you're there
Allowing me to live my dreams
So make all our destiny, I swear

Holding me in your arms
Gives me the strength
To finally feel what's true
I wanna thank you for giving me
A life that knows no rule

Never thought my light would ever
Shine again
Everyday I'll always treasure
Can I say?

I wanna give my all to you
I'm giving all myself to you
Please, take all that's mine

Your eyes tell me
So much of you
No words I speak

Will ever be
My all
My all
I'll give it to you

Everytime you wake up next to me
The feeling of intensity
Never subsides
Caressing me so tenderly
I know this love I'll never hide

I wanna give my all to you
I'm giving all myself to you
Please, take all that's mine

Your eyes tell me
So much of you
No words I speak
Will ever be
My all
My all

I'll give it to you
