

Evil Twin

Anthrax

Ideology used as a weapon
With lines that cut so deeply to the truth
Your head's on the block and still you threaten
A wretched way of life for those that choose, and abuse

Believe, in nothing worth believing in
Believe, stand for nothing, care for nothing
Believe, empty words a false doctrine
Bloodied in your holy war's goal

Look what you did, so fucking sick, it's what you did
The evil twin of devotion and now you're dead

You represent your discontent
Slaughtering the innocent
Insolence
You're no martyrs

The arrogance to reinvent
The holy words their meanings rent
Evil twin
You're no martyrs

Refuse and resist dictated terror
Fighting a war with both feet in
Savage that our planet is the venue
For a festival of massacres

Believe, in nothing worth believing in
Believe, stand for nothing, care for nothing
Believe, empty words a false doctrine
Bloodied in your holy war's goal

Look what you did, so fucking sick, it's what you did
The evil twin of devotion and now you're dead

You represent your discontent
Slaughtering the innocent
Insolence
You're no martyrs

The arrogance to reinvent
The holy words their meanings rent
Evil twin
You're no martyrs

Broke and sickened by the senseless atrocity
And repulsion for this old world reality

Forcing fear to dominate
Hate, a loaded gun
When in doubt, have no doubt
Death has just begun

You represent your discontent
Slaughtering the innocent
Insolence

You're no martyrs

The arrogance to reinvent
The holy words their meanings rent
Evil twin
You're no martyrs
