

I Don't Need Anybody

Anti-Flag

I don't need anybody
Hey!
I feel I'll rip your heart as though as I'm already drugged
Been searched through
Been lied to
Going out tonight
Onto to you
Nothing you can say
Voices say "rip your heart"
They're on their way
Now boy, I'm watching me
Boy, what are the odds?
They're saying "Murder me"
Till I'm behind bars
..
...
They're drunk
That'll suck
Got our stuff in the van
One night stand
May I join you in the shade?
And collect sun
Don't you want to murder, kill?
We don't own a gun
Don't charge your TV set
The sunlight just has passed
They won't take you down
'Till someone else is left
Know what makes you?
You'll never even know
Who, what, god, am I?
And something more
Take me out of the backwards summit
Not anymore
Not anymore
I had you on TV
You walked away
Told me "It's not your heart"
Gave it away
You want to tell me though
You'd take me back
