

N.B.C. (No Blood Thirsty Corporations)

Anti-Flag

I heard a man on the radio saying, we're facing an economic hell,
It creates a vision in my head of ten thousand kids sent off to kill
Theres always a voice that says, you've got a choice
But a choice between shit is still shit!!

Resistance, Resistance
I won't be used
By a fascist corporation, a right wing politician,
I'm not a slave, not a tool, fuck you!

I've got an idea in my head and I know it is nothing new
But it seems to me a better plan than being used, and being screwed
Think your safe to spread your hate from behind your iron gates
Your walls will never be strong enough to keep us down

Resistance, Resistance
I won't be used
By a fascist corporation, a right wing politician,
I'm not a slave, not a tool, fuck you!

Sometimes there is not a choice, like when your backs against the wall
So it's better to make a move, before they've set you up to fall
SO YOU... so you better organize
SO YOU... so you better open eyes
SO YOU... so you better sound out loud the call
Before you find your back is up against the wall
THEIR fucking wall

Resistance, Resistance
I won't be used
By a fascist corporation, a right wing politician,
I'm not a slave, not a tool, fuck you!
