

Rhetorical Stagnation

Anti-System

CND's a farce, they'll never get anything done
Pathetic annual marches, is that where we belong?
Law abiding marches, everyone shouts "Peace",
"Love, Not War", "Ban The Bomb", but the weapons still increase

Together we could stop the bomb but it needs more than CND

A peaceful world could be had, but not through organised processes

There must be an alternative way to voice your aspirations
Kept in line, in rank and file, been through it all before,
But such useless forms of protest would never prevent a war

Together we could stop the bomb but it needs more than CND
