

Fuck Homophobia

Antidote

Your best friend told you he was gay
You're narrowminded, said no way!
He is still the same, but you turned the friendship into hate
You reject him, just because he is not straight

Two girls together is alright
Two men in love means a fight
It is affection between two individuals
Stop the hate against homosexuals

What are you afraid of?
Fuck homophobia!
