

Live by the Rules

Antidote

I don't wanna live by their rules
So much I can't do it's always no

Don't tell me it's best for us all
Government it's laws it's one big wall

They put control on everything that's going on
This feels like a modern prison
So are you gonna let them have their way and take control of you
Or are you gonna take a stand and not give in say FUCK YOU
