

Punkrocker

Antidote

He ain't got no future ain't got no hope
Lived life on the streets always high on dope
Told family and friends that they could all fuck off
2 fingers in the air he acted so tough

He was a punkrocker did it for the show
He was a punkrocker had to let it go

He swore it was for life until he met this girl
She moved into his flat showed him a new world
Quit drugs and got a job and then said punk goodbye
A car a 3 piece suit and now he even wears a tie

Punkrock is for life at least that's in my view
So stop pretending you're so punk
By telling us the rules
