

Senseless Violence

Antidote

Wrong place in the wrong time
A friend of mine got beaten up
They broke his nose and broke his jaw
He didn't know about the football match
Now his face is a fucking mess

Wrong place at the wrong time
Everything is an excuse
For their martial arts abuse
Don't care about the way you look
They just want to beat you up

I've had enough of fights
I've had enough of all this senseless violence
