

Stuck in Your Views

Antidote

No matter what I say, you won't listen to me
No matter how I try, you only see what you want to see

You're so stuck in your views
You don't wanna hear my news
We're in the nineties now
You've got to change somehow
You only see the dark side
Does that mean you're always right?
The 80s were 10 years ago
But you never listen no!
