Antifreeze

I've tried
To find a good reason to smile
Found only heartbreak
I need to find
Someone I can trust, now
Just hold tight,
Friends and lovers aren't always easy to find
I'm not blind
Maybe I should walk away
You can't let everything in life just bring you down
No I can't live like this.
Just say the word and I'll just walk away.
So tired,
Of everything falling apart
I guess that's how it goes
I can't reply,
I don't expect you to, now.
You can't make this everything
You don't understand me at all.
