

I Wanna Be Your Taxi Driver

Antifreeze

Hello, you know my name, I'll be your taxi driver today
I'll take you anywhere you want to go and there will be no toll What time do you get out of school? where you want is where I'll be I'll meet you by the 21 doors, i'll be there at 3

Can I pick you up from school? Ive got to talk to you I wanna give you a ride, so I can be by your side, and I can ta ke you home
If you want to leave, that's ok with me, but if you want to sta y
You're always welcome aboard, for you a lot of fuel I've stored
I wanna be your taxi cab driver today

My car, it's not a Lincoln, it's not a cadillac
But it drives down the road, and the seats go back There is no stick-shift in the way, and I'll always let the radio play So come on, walk strait, into my cab, there is nothing to push you away
