

Life's Little Details

Antifreeze

I plead with fate
Be not unkind
Cross my heart
Preserve my mind

Your hands are scarred, from beating me
And I'm left, to bleed

Grant me faith
and grant me time
to take a breath
and save my life

I'll burn you down
And I'll take my time
To hear the screams you make Although I know they're mine
All these things you made me feel
And all this time
you're unforgiven still
With all I've seen I still have no faith
Except in the end of things.

Jealousy and hate
All these things you made me feel
And all this time
You're unforgiven still
