

Sorry

Antigama

I've been bad again
Sorry
When I'm pissed with everything I lose control
And believe me I'd rather be with you
Where you are now
You gotta let me apologize that I can't say what I want
I'm sorry that I'm hiding something that makes me afraid
I'm sorry that I can't see because I don't look
I'm sorry but I can't be the one I should
I'm sorry for letting someone down again and knowing it
I kept quiet instead of screaming
But I'm sorry for my yell as it left some wounds
I'm sorry
