

Keep On Trying

Antoine Clamaran

I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying like nobody else
I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying

I'm not trying to be what I'm not
I don't wanna see what you got
I'm just expressing how I feel
Without the strain what is real

Dumping my ass for other's ace
I'm not running away, I'm no flake
Its no use to disway my beliefs
People might say that I'm a thief

I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying like nobody else
I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying
I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying like nobody else
I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying

Don't go thinking this is abuse
Best thing to do is to all the ones I praise
Never thought a style is natural
Never thought a style is natural

Dumping my ass for other's ace
I'm not running away, I'm no flake
Its no use to dissway my belief
People might say that I'm a thief

I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying like nobody else
I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying
I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying like nobody else
I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying

I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying like nobody else
I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying
I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying like nobody else
I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying

I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying like nobody else
I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying
I keep on trying to be myself

I keep on crying like nobody else
I keep on trying to be myself
I keep on trying
